

Case Study

Elton Rail Sidings, Cheshire

Client Quinn Glass

Value £3,500,000

Service Project Control, CDMC Services, Cost planning, Procurement, Cost Control

The project comprises the construction of a new rail siding for exclusive use of the Quinn Group including associated logistics options of either bottom discharge and conveyors or an inter-modal solution. Feasibility cost plan, procurement, post contract administration and cost control of the works packages all provided.